

I do not think it is right to interfere with the laws of Indiana, especially one that is beneficial to all of us. I have hardly any telemarketing calls now and would like to keep it that way. I no longer am interrupted at meal time, bed time and early morning. I hope you will take into consideration my comments and leave the telephone privacy law alone. Thank you.